The Hate U Give Best-Selling Author Coming to Hamilton this Fall

Mark your calendar for Tuesday, September 10 when author Angie Thomas will visit Hamilton! Her novel, The Hate U Give, is a New York Times #1 best-seller that has also been made into a major motion picture. Thomas will give a presentation entitled “The Hate U Give: Finding Your Activism, and Turning the Political into the Personal” at Hamilton High School beginning at 7:00 p.m. More details to come in the fall Fast Lane.

About the Book:
Sixteen-year-old Starr Carter moves between two worlds: the poor neighborhood where she lives and the fancy suburban prep school she attends. The uneasy balance between these worlds is shattered when Starr witnesses the fatal shooting of her childhood best friend Khalil at the hands of a police officer. Following this traumatic event, what Starr does—or does not—say could upend her community. It could also endanger her life.

SearchOhio is Back!
If we do not own an item you want, we offer you the free service of borrowing it from another library when possible. This interlibrary loan service takes place through SearchOhio, a consortium of public libraries throughout the state. The Lane Libraries are happy to once again offer this service after a hiatus during a catalog upgrade. For more information, visit www.lanepl.org/research/searchohio.

Year Round Book Sales
You can enjoy a selection of gently used books for sale year round in our libraries. The Friends of the Oxford Lane Library hold a monthly sale in the library lobby the first Saturday of each month, 10:00 a.m. - 2:00 p.m. The Friends of the Hamilton-Fairfield Lane Libraries keep fully stocked book sale areas at the Hamilton and Fairfield Lane Libraries that are available for browsing during open hours. Stop in and find some great bargains while supporting your Lane Libraries!
A UNIVERSE OF STORIES

SUMMER READING PROGRAM
FOR ADULTS
JUNE 1 - AUGUST 1

Why should kids have all the fun? Join us for our 6th annual adult summer reading program! Adults 18 and over are invited to participate for a chance to win a Lane Libraries tote bag filled with great items and gift cards from local shops! For every book, audiobook or eBook you read between June 1 and August 1, you gain points towards an entry to win one of the bags. Sign up to participate and log your reading at www.lanepl.org/summerreading. The more you read, the better your chance to win!

Youth summer calendars are available at all Lane locations and all of our free programs are online at www.lanepl.org/events.

Don’t miss out on all the free fun happening for all ages this summer at your Lane Libraries!
The Hamilton Lane Library presents the 23rd annual Reading and All That Jazz summer program. This series of alternating weekly Jazz performances and book reviews will entertain you all summer long on Tuesdays at noon, June through August. Special thanks to the Friends of the Lane Libraries for their support of this series.

Our Towns: A 100,000 Mile Journey into the Heart of America
By: James Fallows & Deborah Fallows
Reviewer: Joan Witt
For 5 years the Fallowses crisscrossed the country, chronicling the efforts of mid-sized towns to survive and thrive in creative ways on the local level, away from the toxicity of national politics. This travelogue records community success, challenge, and failure unearthed by this husband and wife team, but the vignettes also offer up hope.

Inheritance: A Memoir of Genealogy, Paternity, and Love
By: Dani Shapiro
Reviewer: Nikki Motley
Imagine having your DNA tested on a whim only to discover that your father is not your biological father after all. This revelation shook Dani Shapiro to the core and launched her on an exploration of discovery and the consequences, science vs medical ethics, identity and family secrets as catalogued here in her latest memoir.

Tuesday, July 2, Noon
Milkman
By: Anna Burns
Reviewer: Mary Kay Fischer
This Man Booker Prize winner is presumed to take place in late '70s Belfast during the Troubles. One reviewer described it as a masterclass in building an ever-deepening mood of paranoia, suspicion, and dread. Another described the protagonist, “Middle Sister”, as navigating the violent political conflict of her world by shutting herself off emotionally and intellectually from her surroundings. The presence of a mysterious paramilitary leader, “The Milkman”, rattles the boundaries of her world.

Tuesday, July 16, Noon
Before The Fall
By: Noah Hawley
Reviewer: Sara Pinkerton
Award winner Hawley, creator of the TV show Fargo, offers up a multi-layered tale built around a tragic plane crash that leaves nine people dead and two survivors. Who were the passengers? Why were they there? What caused the crash? What happened to the survivors? Mystery? Character study? Screenplay? Pop culture truth teller? You decide.

Tuesday, July 30, Noon
The Underground Railroad
By: Colson Whitehead
Reviewer: Kelli Lyon Johnson
This prize-winning tale retells an age-old story: the efforts of a runaway slave to escape. However, as one reviewer comments,

Tuesday, August 13, Noon
The Pioneers: The Heroic Story of the Settlers Who Brought the American Ideal West
By: David McCullough
Reviewer: Henry Cepluch
Award-winning author McCullough uses rare diaries and letters to illuminate this quintessentially American story of pioneers whose ambition and courage led them to remarkable accomplishments as they opened up and settled the great Northwest Territory following the Revolution.

Tuesday, August 27, Noon
The Library Book
By: Susan Orlean
Reviewer: Marion Thoms
It burned for over 7 hours, destroyed 400,000 books and damaged more than 700,000 additional materials. Who set fire to the Los Angeles Public Library in 1986? The author reports on this unsolved crime but digs deeper to showcase the remarkable, often unsung role libraries play in our lives.
